Entire Nation is Held Under Spell of Svengali's Eyes

By William Philip Simms

Rome, May 15.—Is Benito Mussolini, prime minister of Italy, a strange, new kind of Svengali? And is Italy playing the role of Trilby—an entire nation under the spell of this strange man's eyes?

Tonight I interviewed Mussolini and I confess I am inclined to believe this more than half true. From the moment I entered his amazing office in the new Foreign Affairs building here, I had this feeling, a sensation I remember having only once before. That was when I interviewed Mme. de Thebes, the celebrated sorceress of Paris, now dead, in her mysterious room hung all around with black velvet and lighted only by the glow from crystal globes used in her practice of black magic.

I have interviewed kings and emperors, presidents and princes, premiers, dictators and all manner of men and women, but Mussolini impressed me as none of these impressed me.

He's "Different" Statesman

I mean he is different from any statesman I ever saw, as different as night from day. I have talked with political leaders whose profundity impressed me more, whose ideas seemed to me to be fundamentally more sound and in whose hands I would prefer to see placed the destiny of my own land.

But I have seen none other anything like Mussolini, the man with the hypnotic eyes, "black magic" statesman of Italy, the man who stares at the citizens of his country, from king on down the line, and they all sing to his bidding—like Svengali made Trilby sing in the romance which everyone has read.

Does Mussolini realize his hypnotic power? He must. The first thing that met my eyes as I came ashore at Brindisi, way down in southern Italy, was a billboard picture of the fascist leader, a picture so extraordinary that it held me spellbound until I could make out what it was all about. The head was inclined forward just a trifle and from under beaming brows two enormous black eyes, the whites showing all round, huge, exaggerated eyes that stared straight at you into you and through you precisely like the hypnotic stage pictures of Wilton Lackey as Svengali.

All over Brindisi I kept finding myself sniped at from the ambush of every fence and wall by those two orbs. I could well imagine the effect this might have on the ignorant and less sophisticated peasants of the country.

My sole object in coming to Italy was to see and talk with the remarkable owner of those eyes—the man who had turned Italy, almost over night, into an armed camp ready to do his bidding—the man who marched on Rome with a powerful army at his back and "took" it without firing a shot, took it and forced the king to do his will—the man who dissolved parliament and made his word supreme.

For that is what Mussolini did and nobody is more keenly aware of this fact than Mussolini himself.

He openly boasts that he has but to wave his hand and 100,000 "black shirts"—fascist soldiers—will snap into action and obey his slightest word.

BENITO MUSSOLINI AND HIS SVENGALI-LIKE EYES

HUGHES FIGHTS FOR ROAD FUND

Refuses to Let Beaumont Grab Swag

Refusing to give up any of the good roads bond issue money allotted to his precinct for the construction of a bridge across the Neches river at Beaumont, Charles W. Hughes, county commissioner from Port Arthur, backed action in commissioners court Monday when it was proposed to finance the construction of the Neches river bridge by taking part of the bond issue money allotted each of the four county precincts for building and improving roads.

"I can't see why you want me to give up road projects in precinct 2 and use the money to build your bridge," Hughes told members of the commissioners court and representatives of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce.

Stands Pat.

Pressed with the question of whether or not he thought the Neches river bridge proposition affected the entire county, and is not as much of a benefit to Port Arthur and precinct 2 as any other part of the county, Hughes replied:

"No, I can't say that it is."

E. C. Bracken, manager of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that the county is about to spend more money for good roads than is available from the bond issue, and come out with no funds left for the construction of the Neches river bridge at Beaumont. He presented a lengthy statement of the county's road building funds, with a resolution passed by the county commission in June 1922 pledging enough funds from the bond sale for the construction of the Neches river bridge.

A vote on the proposition for dividing funds for construction of the Neches river bridge was not taken, pending further efforts to settle the question amicably among the commissioners. W. A. Vaughan, county commissioner from Sabine also held out against giving up any of the funds allotted his precinct for the Neches bridge project.

NO SUCCESSOR FOR BEN WILEY

E. H. Miles to Be Ex-Officio Court Clerk

With the establishment of Port Arthur's new court set for June 14, when E. H. Miles, city clerk, becomes ex-officio clerk of the court, no appointment of a successor to Ben H. Wiley who was until Monday desk sergeant and clerk of recorder's court, will be made.

This was the announcement of Mayor Logan this afternoon, pointing out that during the few weeks remaining until the new court is established, members of the police force can attend to the duties of desk sergeant and court clerk.

Wiley was disqualified from continuing as desk sergeant and clerk of the court when he was sworn in as commissioner of public records and finance Monday, according to an opinion given Mayor Logan by Vernon J. Wistner, city attorney.

After the new court is set up in Port Arthur, as provided in the city's court bill passed by the last session of the state legislature, City Clerk Miles will appoint the clerk of the court, under the provisions of the court bill.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—

Court proceedings today were expected to free from charges of murder Gladwell G. Richardson, 19, accused by his own confession of killing Rabbi Alfred Lafae in a downtown hotel here the night of April 2.

Richardson's preliminary examination in police court was staged for today in view of the fact that the county grand jury heard the evidence in the case Monday night and refused to return an indictment. It is expected that the police court hearing will be waived and the young sailor set free.

Richardson is from Oklahoma.

Port Arthur is the third city visited by the boys, who are Clyde A. Boaz, Brady D. Morris, Arthur E. Boaz, and J. Richard Holland.

CITY REVENUES SHOW INCREASE

Property Additions Augment Tax Returns

An additional $2,000,000 to taxable property valuations in Port Arthur this year, bringing the total valuation for the city in excess of $22,000,000, is predicted by G. K. Lomax, city tax collector and assessor.

Taking the building permit record for the past year, Lomax is preparing the lists of new buildings, with their valuations, as the first step in determining the city's revenue from taxes. The city's budget for the ensuing year will be framed by the commission in June, Lomax said.

Half of the $2,000,000 increase in valuations in Port Arthur represents the valuation placed upon property in Model addition, brought into the city limits recently, Lomax said. The annual job of taking readings on taxable property in the city will be launched in June, the city assessor said.

Until the budget is framed in June, the tax rolls finally adopted by the city commission, sitting as a board of equalization, starting the third Monday in July, no venture as to the probable tax rate for Port Arthur this year can be made, Lomax said. It will probably be August before the city's tax rate can be determined, he pointed out.

18 Persons Perish When Tornado Cuts Swath in Arkansas

20 Lose Lives in Texas as Storms Rage Thru Several Sections of State; Damage Increases as Wrecking Crews Work

BULLETIN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 15.—Train service with the stricken storm district around Hot Springs will be restored this afternoon, officials of the Missouri Pacific railroad here declared.

A telephone lineman working near Hot Springs talked to the Arkadelphia Telephone company today and declared that 17 children were killed in the flood and fire which swept the resort city last night.

The cyclone which devastated Hot Springs was believed to have spent its force after sweeping over Little Rock. George L. Pierre, a railroad man, was killed by an electric shock during the storm and heavy rains here. Damage to property in Little Rock and vicinity was estimated at more than $100,000 today.

DESTON, Texas, May 15.—Damage that will run into thousands of dollars was caused by a near tornado which hit in the eastern part of Deston county late yesterday.

The storm covered an area of from four to five miles in width and extended from east of Lewisville northwest to the county line, a distance of about 15 miles.

No casualties have been reported.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 15.—Searching parties trampled through debris and mud today in search of a number of persons believed to have been killed when this famous summer resort was stricken by flood, fire and tornado.

Physicians and nurses who spent the night in the storm swept area reported some persons had been killed but were unable to give any estimates. No bodies had been received at the morgue.

The rescue parties were made up of staffs from the army and navy hospitals, while business men and other townspeople were commandeered to aid. Property damage will exceed $1,500,000, business men estimated as they made their way through the torn and broken buildings and visited two of the city's most popular hotels which were swept by fire following the flood and tornado.

The night of terror began with a cloudburst shortly after dusk which turned streets in the business district into raging rivers, carrying frame buildings before it and tossing automobiles and other impediments about like chaff.

The waters poured down from the mountain sides and at the crest stood 10 feet high in the main section of the town. Fronts of stores were brushed in as the swirling torrent raced through the town. Asphalt paving was up-turned and considerable other damage done by the water.

As the terror of the flood began to pass, fire, caused by lightning, burst from the Grand Rapids Furniture company. The fire fighting equipment battled in the mud and water against the flames but with little success and the blaze ate its way into the main business buildings.

The red flames flickering on the murky water in the darkness of the night cast wild shadows and added to the fear of women and children who cowered in their homes.

Wealthy guests from eastern cities, the vanguard of the tourists, remained in their rooms in fear of the fury of the elements.

The fire spread to the Dixie cafe, the Oliver Finne Grocery company, and then licked its way up the walls of the Marquette hotel. The hotel, a $750,000 structure, was totally destroyed.

The electric light plant then went out of commission adding further to the confusion of the night.

The flames spread taking in the American Express company and the Rosenthal Shoe store.

The steady downpour of rain which continued through the night finally conquered the flames and shortly before daybreak the army of rescue workers, headed by army and navy staffs and police officials, began the task of saving the injured and caring for victims who may be dead or homeless.

At least 15 persons are missing, first reports of the rescue workers said. At the same time railroad workers began rebuilding the damage caused their lines by the wind and flood. Wrecking crews were scattered throughout the storm swept area while all train service was at a standstill.

Telephone and telegraph wires ripped away by the tornado at 7 o'clock last night were still badly paralyzed early today. The Western Union line first to establish communication with the stricken district and on this thin strand of wire, reaching as far as Little Rock, the first details of the disaster were sent to the outer world.

In one instance in the height of the flood a man and three children were caught stranded in an automobile by the torrent. The party was rescued by ropes just as the car was carried away.

A few minutes later another automobile was battered and broken as it was tossed by the high water. Two men managed to extricate themselves and swim to safety.

Mrs. Katie Hopkins trapped in her automobile by the fast rising waters was nearly drowned before assistance reached her and cut her hair loose from the tangled wreckage. She is in a hospital in a dangerous condition.

Death Toll in Texas Storm Placed at 20

COLORADO, Texas, May 15.—With a known death toll of 20 and with 75 seriously injured, including a score of little children, this stricken little town spent a night of horror last night.

The cyclone which swept south and east of here yesterday filled the local sanitarium with injured and dying until it was necessary to make temporary hospitals out of the Baptist and Methodist churches, and all through the night in these three scenes of death, Colorado's people worked to save their neighbors.

Fifty-one of the most seriously injured are being cared for at the Baptist church. At least ten of these are expected to die.

The latest arrival at the Baptist church is a tiny Mexican boy, Francis Marritt Hernandez, born at 10 o'clock last night to Mrs. Juanita Hernandez. The mother was found eight hours after the twister buried in a storm cellar, with both arms broken and her lips badly cut. The baby who came with the calm that followed the storm, is not expected to live.

Two Mexican babies slept side by side on an improvised cot in the Baptist church, happily unaware that they were unidentified and unclaimed. The most miraculous escape told of by those brought here from the devastated regions was that of the six weeks' old daughter of Mrs. Nellie Hambray. Mrs. Hambray, very gravely injured and stricken by the knowledge that her husband, Oscar Hambray, of Lorraine, was mortally injured, crawled on her hands and knees a hundred yards against the driving wind and rain to find her baby buried in the mud at the edge of a creek. Although hurled through the air by charges.

Here's a popular way to serve
Kellogg's Bran—greatest health food!

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream. Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nut-like flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method: Measure out two table-spoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regulatory powers are in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must eat is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

PHOENIX, ARIZ., May 15.—An Arizona officer, alias H. W. White, who is under arrest today on a charge of embezzling $10,000 from citizens of Butler, through an insurance and mortgage company, was held by officers here after three shots at the officer had been fired at him and then escaped. JACKIE COOGAN IN "OLIVER TWIST"
We have never seen so lovable a figure in motion pictures as the Oliver Twist of Jackie Coogan at the Peoples Theatre. This story of Dickens has been filmed with the spirit of the author in it, and it there is a motion picture actor in the United States that could have given the film as much as Oliver Twist, we would like to see him. It is not possible here to go into details concerning either the film as a technical success or the irresistible portrayal by this fine little boy, but it is necessary in fairness to say that the figure of Lon Chaney is a triumph. Gladys Brockwell as Nancy is sincere and effective. You may take the word of one who is not always exuberant. See this picture.

DEATH TOLL

the night wind gust, the child was encased.

Another daughter, Louis Gertrude, 6, is lying at the point of death with a terrible wound in her head. A nail was driven into her temple.

Sixteen-month-old Valise Shelton, her leg broken in three places, was probably the most pitiful sufferer in the temporary hospital last night. All through the dreary, painful hours, her shrill voice called pitifully, "Mamma, mamma." Her mother, Mrs. S. W. Shelton, could not answer the child's cry; she had been swept to death by the storm. The child's father, S. W. Shelton, is internally injured and physicians hold out little hope for his recovery. Her three brothers and sisters lie swathed in bandages on a cot beside her.

So far, eleven bodies have been brought to the J. H. Green morgue, in Colorado. Local authorities estimate that at least 829,000 will be needed to care for the 300 persons rendered homeless. Most of these lost even their clothing and are absolutely destitute. More than 200 are believed to have more serious cases have been brought to Colorado.

Donations for the Red Cross fund here are already pouring in and doctors, nurses and medical supplies have been rushed from Sweetwater, Big Spring and Snyder to care for the victims of what is said to be the worst storm ever known in West Texas.

BAR CAFE

AUSTIN, May 15.—The senate voted today a resolution by Witt to permit establishment of a restaurant in the basement of the capitol.

GRIMSHAW TO HER FRIEND, SALLY AFFECTION.

Just why I am to be the recipient of my married friends' griefs and grievances I do not understand. Of course, dear, dear Sally, I am highly flattered that you make me such a confident, but never having been married myself and being still under thirty, I sometimes feel that I must be somewhat inadequate in the capacity of adviser in chief of either you or Leslie.

Yes, my dear Sally, the very day I got your letter I received one from Leslie in which she said with much truth, that it was the little annoyances of life that made up modern martyrdom.

She almost made me believe that she had made out her case until I received your letter. You are wrestling with a great problem, dear Sally, and perhaps it does you a great deal of good to be able to tell it all to me. I am sure if you wish to tell me and it helps you, I am only too glad to hear it. But as much as I might say, as much as I might advise, your problem is one which no one can solve for you. You say you are afraid you are hard because you have not the sympathy for Sam you might have. You also wonder if anyone knows why he or she marries.

Although I have not experienced these raptures myself I believe that they come to every married woman some time in her life and usually it is within the first three years. In the first place, Sally dear, I wonder if you remember the words, "Love, honor and cherish, until death do you part?" Some women have loved and cherished a man all their lives after it has been impossible to honor him.

Sam is a good man, a charming man. He is only weak and I do not think that you have any right to pity yourself, to the exclusion of feeling sorry for him over this terrible thing that has come to your husband.

You know you did love him well enough to marry him. Have you found out already that you did not love him well enough to be his wife. The love of a wife means tenderness, sacrifice, every ready sympathy. It means comradeship in the best sense of the word.

Of course these may seem hard ideas of a woman who is not yet married, but in a way Sam's delicate

OKLAHOMA RAIN BRINGS DAMAGE

Communication Crippled By Heavy Downpour

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 15.—With many streams at flood level and thousands of dollars in damage to railroads and communication lines, Oklahoma was recovering today from a general rain throughout the state yesterday and last night. Cloudbursts and light storms visited several sections. Washouts were reported on the Rock Island line between Wewoka and Seminole and at Dilly 100 feet of track was destroyed by the flooded south Canadian river. The rainfall ranged from more than four inches at Shawnee to less than an inch in northwestern Oklahoma. The rainfall will prove a boon to crops throughout the state, coming at an opportune time, according to farm experts.

THE GREAT DANGER OF HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Thousands of men and women have high blood pressure and do not realize it. Dizziness, headache, sleeplessness, nervousness are some of the tell-tale signs. It is usually caused by some functional derangement of the vital organs such as the liver or kidneys or a habitual clogging of the intestines. When this happens, as it usually does, in middle life, Nature calls for help and the heart tries to answer by doing double work; by pumping more blood to the attacked part of the body.

This creates a terrific pressure and often results in apoplexy, of which we read so often.

A simple, safe remedy for high blood pressure and the conditions that cause it, is now offered in scientific Bialin. Bialin will relieve your high blood pressure by acting quickly and effectively at the seat of the trouble. It will stimulate your liver and cleanse the system of the impurities that interfere with the regular functioning of the vital organs.

Bialin will make you feel better in a few days. It is put up in convenient tablet form and can be had at all good druggists, such as Corner Drug Store and Kleas Drug Co.—adv.

Pirates Look Good Against Champions In First Encounter

Writer Picks Crew as Most Formidable Contender for Crown This Season; Team Has Many Possibilities in New Season.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
NEW YORK, May 15.—The Pittsburgh Pirates are the best looking of the clubs who have appeared against the champion Giants this year.

The Pirates look to be the outstanding contenders for the National league pennant, and if they can avoid the pitfalls which wrecked their chances for the last two years, the Giants will have no cinch victory in the race.

Player for player, position for position, the Pirates are almost as strong as the Giants. They might be a trifle less game, perhaps, because they have not been called upon to use their courage so much, and they might not be under leadership as brainy as the Giants, but they seem to have everything else about equal.

"Rob" Russell, who was one of the big powers in the resurrection of the Pirates this year, has been in a bad slump and it has reduced the effectiveness of the club. He sprang a sore back, and along with the curtailing of his hitting he went into a bad fielding slump.

When Russell gets going again, the club is bound to improve.

The Pirates are still fast in the field and on the bases, and they are as alert as any team in the league. Their defense has improved over last year, as Rabbit Maraville has settled down to serious ball playing and "Pie" Traynor is playing a most brilliant game at third base. Traynor now is one of the best third basemen in the league and he is not yet matured. Timmer has been batting heavily and while he isn't the smoothest second baseman in the National, he is anything but the poorest.

Grimm is the best first baseman today in the league. He is a better fielder than Kelly, and he is hitting all over the Giant first seaker. He has hit safely in every game this season, and has run a consecutive string up to twenty-four games. This has been accomplished in spite of the fact that he has not been feeling well. He is troubled with an ear infection which doctors fear may develop into a master. The pitchers, led by Babe Adams, who will be 41 next week, are delivering; and if they can keep on the Giants will have a sweet fight on their hands.

BILLY WANTED 'AN HIGH BALL'

Famous Umps Pulls One on President
WASHINGTON, May 15.—When President Harding officially opened the season at Washington by tossing the first ball to Umpire Billy Evans, it was noted that the president, after the manner of major league pitchers, conferred with his battery partner.

As the president stood up in his box to emcee the game, Umpire Evans took up his position near the home plate, the cameras clicked and the movie operators used by many feet of film. "What would you prefer, Mr. Evans, a high ball or a low one?" asked the president.

"Make it a high ball," replied Evans, "I haven't seen one for a long time," replied Evans.

Whereupon the president grinned, wound up in the most approved fashion, and then delivered a high ball, that forced Evans to extend to the limit for a one-handed catch.

The president sure had a kick in that high ball, observed Billy, as he surveyed the bare hand man red-faced as a result of the speed with which the ball was delivered.

BEAUMONT, Texas, May 15.—The Exporters pointed out the offensives of Foreman in Magnolia park yesterday and gathered in a total of six runs for this team while they were downing the Shreveport Gassers to the tune of 3-2.

The game was a brilliant affair, and Jacobus, who received the nomination for mound work for the Beaumont Exporters, executed his task well. He scattered the seven hits the visitors collected and won his game in easy fashion.

SLUGGERS TRIM KOUNTZE TEAM SUNDAY 12 TO 5

Win Opening Game Away From Home Fields

Port Arthur's Sluggers, latest ball team to enter the local field, got away to a good start in opening up their season, and despite the fact they were playing on a foreign field, they took Kountze, Texas, into camp Sunday afternoon on the latter's diamond by the decisive score of 12 to 5.

The Sluggers noted a total of 13 hits from nine, who went the entire route for Kountze, while Meyers and Batteries were allowing up seven runs over Kountze, and are desirous of stronger opposition. The early lead they hoped off was never endangered by the Kountze contingent, and P stood up all the way.

YOUNG DENNY VISITS HERE

New Orleans Batter in Port Arthur Monday

Port Arthur was visited by one of the "best boys" from New Orleans Sunday and Monday when "Young" Denny from that city drove into town.

Denny, a flashy scrapper who has become quite popular in New Orleans, only spent Sunday afternoon and Monday here, departing last night on route home. He has been touring the country for his health, and is preparing for future engagements both in Louisiana and in other fields.

Denny enjoys the distinction of having recently staged a complete comeback, once well-known in the ring, and a young scrapper two years ago retired "from the business" and decided to remain out of the ring. There arose those scrappers whom Denny was destined to conquer, and urged on by close friends, the batter returned to the ring square where he again gained fame. He's back now; perhaps back to stay and he was being greeted by his friends in Port Arthur yesterday.

SPUDDERS WIN

GALVESTON, Texas, May 15.—Galveston failed to hit in the pinch, as again and Wichita Falls took the opening game of the series 5 to 4. Eleven Spudders runners were left on base. Skipper Pat Newman juggled his batting order about, in an effort to shake the jinx but to little avail.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

"All right, my dear," said the Tinker Man. "And I can't thank you enough for your help."

Every soldier in Bing-Bang Land had to have a new suit after the war, both wooden ones and tin ones. And many had to have new arms and legs and even heads, to say nothing of plugs of wood or tin where bullet holes showed. The last battle had been a fierce one and hardly anyone escaped.

So the Tinker Man, assisted by the Twins, went right to work in his hospital at once.

One by one the soldiers were finished, quite as nice as new and had no tin or wood in big cardboard boxes with bright letters on top.

"Now watch and see what I am going to do next," said the Tinker Man, so that there will be no more war in Bing-Bang Land this year.

He went to his cupboard and brought out a big ball of strong twine and wrapped each box around and around and around, tying the string in hard knots.

"If I had thought about doing that before there would have been no tin in the first place," he said. "Now for the other things."

And he picked up the damaged airplanes, the submarines, the tank and the war balloon.

The Tinker Man hammered and tapped and soldered and screwed until they were fixed, too. These also he put in big boxes.

"If you don't mind us any more, I think we'll be going," said the Twins. We must take a message to the Fairy Queen."

"All right, my dear," said the Tinker Man. "And I can't thank you enough for your help. Give my regards to her Royal Highness, please."

If any little boy gets a box of tin soldiers or wooden soldiers next Christmas, he must not examine them too closely. Very likely they have been through the war.

A Puzzle A Day

149-525
MARYLAND 1923

The drawing illustrates a typical Maryland automobile license plate. Three men saw an automobile as they drove with a Maryland license. All agree that they saw six figures on the tag. One man remembered seeing a 2 and a 9, another saw two eights together. The third man saw the figures on, followed by another figure. Can you puzzle out the number of the license?

Yesterday's answer:
If one son was three times as old as the other, and if the age of the first multiplied by itself, added to the age of the second, multiplied by itself produced the sum of 360, the age of the elder must have been 18 and the younger 6.

For: $18 \times 18 = 324$, and $6 \times 6 = 36$, equals 360.
